Supporting Staff and Patients in Faversham

Being admitted to hospital is tough enough but having a volunteer with a friendly smile can make a huge difference.

Friends of Faversham Cottage Hospital & Community Medical Centres:

Friends contributions help us continue the work of the volunteers. We support staff and patients by providing those extra services and amenities.

The Role of the Trustees

The Friends of Faversham Cottage hospital & Community Medical Centres charity was formed in 1973 and has been an established charity maintained by Trustees.

Trustees are selected and volunteer to take the lead for developing the key areas of Friends of Faversham Cottage Hospital & Community Medical Centres. These are primarily providing volunteers, fund raising and campaigning to ensure that services remain at Faversham.

Money raised is then used to purchase additional equipment, services, upgrades and patients comforts.

All our trustees led by,
 David Simmons, Chairman
 Sue Grove, Vice Chairman
 Gill Mather, Equipment Grants
 Mike Moore, Treasurer
 Joan Young, Fund Raising
 Margaret Hibbs
 Sally Robertson
